Numb. 6662.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 2. to Saturday April 6. 1728.

St. James's, April 6.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Baltimore, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Roman Catholicks of the Province of Maryland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects the Roman Catholicks, Inhabitants of the Province of Maryland, under the Government of the Lord Baltimore, Lord and Proprietor thereof, out of our true and unfeigned Senſe of Gratitude for the great Clemency and Goodneſs of your late Royal Father towards us, humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty the Share we bear with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects in the general Grief of the Britiſh Empire on the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign: And as we have the ſame Happineſs with them to ſee your Majeſty peaceably ſucceed to the Crown of your great Father, we humbly beſeech your Majeſty to give us Leave to joyn with them in our hearty Congratulations; and in all Humility we beg your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our conſtant Allegiance and Duty, according to out utmoſt Capacities in this remote Part of your Majeſty's Dominions: And we humbly hope, by our Loyalty, and a ſteady and conſtant Adherence to our Duty, to deſerve ſome Share in that tender Concern your Majeſty has been ſo graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs for all your Subjects. We are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Dublin, March 19.

On Occaſion of his Excellency the Lord Carteret's giving the Royal Aſſent to the Bill, entitled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, &c. the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons made the following Speech to his Excellency.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE Commons, by granting with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs the neceſſary Supplies for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and manifeſting in all their Proceedings greater Zeal and Unanimity for His Majeſty's Service than have been known in any former Reign, have, they hope, made good the Aſſurances they gave at the opening of this Seſſion, of their unſhaken Loyalty and Affection to our moſt gracious Sovereign, and their great Regard for your Excellency's Perſon, and the Honour and Eaſe of your Adminiſtration.

His Majeſty's many gracious Expreſſions of his Royal Favour, and of his Affection for his People of Ireland, could not but produce in the Hearts of his faithful Commons the higheſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude, and engage them with a ſuitable Zeal and Unanimity to provide for the Support of his Government with Honour; to enable him to continue his Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment in ſuch a Poſture as might contribute to diſappoint all Attempts of his Enemies; to prevent all Frauds and Abuſes in the Payment of his Revenue; and by the moſt dutiful Behaviour to convince convince the World there were no Parties among the Proteſtants of Ireland, that they were all united in their Affections, as well as Duty and Intereſt, to ſupport and defend to the utmoſt of their Power his ſacred Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in his Royal Houſe.

We thankfully acknowledge, that your Excellency, by your great Wiſdom and Vigilance in the whole Courſe of your Adminiſtration, has not a little contributed to the remarkable Unanimity of this Seſſion, and the univerſal Zeal of his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects to promote the Glory Peace and Tranquility of his moſt auſpicious Reign. The tender Regard you have always ſhewn for the Proſperity and Welfare of the Kingdom, and your great Goodneſs and Humanity to all Perſons, have convinced them, that to concur with your Excellency in promoting his Majeſty's Service, is the beſt Means to ſecure the true and laſting Intereſt of their Country.

From your Excellency's known Goodneſs towards them, the Commons do not doubt, but that upon your Return to his Majeſty, you will repreſent in the moſt favourable Light their dutiful Behaviour, and recommend them to a Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection.

Whitehall, April 5.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Reverend Mr. William Smyth to be Dean of Ardfert in Ireland, in the Room of Mr. James Bland, deceaſed.

Navy Office, April 3, 1728.

Whereas a Letter dated the 26th of laſt Month, ſigned F. G. was ſent by the Poſt to the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Torrington, complaining of Irregularities in the Payment of ſome of the Men that did belong to one of His Majeſty's Ships lately paid off at Portſmouth: Theſe are to give Notice to the ſaid F. G. that if he will attend the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, at their Office in London, and make out what he has ſet forth, or if he will further explain himſelf by Letter, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

Navy Office, April 3, 1728.

Whereas ſeveral Seamen lately belonging to His Majeſty's Ship the Ludlow Caſtle, laid up and paid off at Woollwich, did, during the ſaid Ship's Continuance at Boſton in New England, abſent themſelves from her, for which abſent Time or Times they have been chequed out of Wages and Victuals: Theſe are to give Notice, that if any of the ſaid Seamen will attend the Navy Board, they ſhall be heard as to the Reaſons they may have to give for abſenting themſelves from their Duty, and what elſe they can offer in their Juſtification.

The Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe deſign to expoſe to Sale in their Court Room at the Exciſe Office, London, on Thurſday the 11th of this Inſtant April, at Three o' Clock in the Afternoon, ſeveral Parcels of condemn'd Bohea and Green Tea, Coffee and Chocolate, Brandy, Arrack, Rum, and Cordial Waters.
